

Mindtuning.io Architecture

This architecture shows how Mindtuning.io securely connects its web and mobile clients to a public API, then leverages private VPCs built with a diverse set of common technologies to provide back-end data and analytics services. This architecture prioritizes technical variety more than one would in a normal enterprise scenario.

